

Atlas + Atlas Agents = Excellence

A seamless partnership ensures you of consistent, high-quality performance.

Over 900 Atlas Agents and affiliates worldwide offer you convenient access to excellent service. Our network of highly skilled local agents, backed by considerable corporate resources, allows you the peace of mind you expect from a national van line.

Atlas synergy means outstanding service.

Each Atlas Agency is independently owned and operated. Our agents provide direct services to all customers from the very beginning. The agents employ the estimators, sales representatives, packers and van operators who manage your relocation. Because they are affiliated with Atlas, we support our agents' efforts by managing central dispatching and revenue distribution, pricing, claims, communications, equipment leasing and programs for quality and safety. Through this efficient working relationship, you receive the personal attention of a local agent and the backing of a reputable, national van line.

The Atlas World Class Commitment: Your assurance of quality agents.

Agents undergo rigorous scrutiny before we welcome them to the Atlas Network. As a condition of affiliation, we regularly assess their performance according to 12 quality criteria that make up our World Class Commitment program, such as customer service, estimating accuracy and claims experience. Atlas Agents must consistently meet or exceed our World Class Commitment standards to maintain their association with Atlas.

Atlas remains agent-owned and committed to your satisfaction.

Atlas was founded in 1948 by a group of 33 independent moving companies. Today, the company remains agent-owned and dedicated to its founders' fundamental principle – to satisfy customers through a commitment to integrity, quality and solutions. Atlas Agents, working together as Atlas Van Lines, add up to service excellence for you.
